bargain.

Do You Believe All may be shoes that come to your hook, but to judge a "bargain" when you've caught it, apply a better test than price. That's only the bait. What the shoe is -what comfort it gives and how long it will last-is the real test of value. Crossetts could not sell for less, nor be better shoes though they sold for more.

Newspaper Tributes.

Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,685 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burrelle, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history. also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heirloom that will be handed down to future genera-eral developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Burrelle has made a special study
